

TITLE 7 – ENROLLMENT, COMMITTEES, ELECTIONS AND REFERENDUMS

CHAPTER 7-8 GAMING FACILITY OPERATIONAL REVIEW BOARD

7-8-1 Purpose

The purpose of this Code is to establish a Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians (Tribes) Gaming Facility Operational Review Board (Board) for purposes of overseeing the operations of the Three Rivers Casino and Hotel.

7-8-2 Authority; Establishment

Article 1, Section 1 and Article VI, Section 2 of the Tribes' Constitution authorizes the Tribal Council to exercise executive authority. Tribal Council may establish boards or committees to assist the Tribal Council in carrying out its responsibilities to provide quality services to the tribal membership and to develop, maintain and protect the assets and interests of the Tribes. The Tribal Council hereby exercises this authority and establishes a Gaming Facility Operational Review Board.

- (f) Board Members serving in positions 2, 3, 4 and 5 may serve an additional six months, or longer, beyond their term, if necessary to prevent a vacancy on the Board.

7-8-7 Duties

The Gaming Facility Operational Review Board shall:

- (a) Maintain oversight and protection of the Gaming Business and Gaming Assets.
- (b) Supervise the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer for the Tribe's Gaming Facilities, and make joint decisions with the Tribal Council regarding the hiring, promotion, termination and salary adjustments of the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer for the Gaming Facility. In making joint decisions, each member of Tribal Council and each member of the Board shall have one vote, provided that the Tribal Council Board member (Position 1) may only vote once. A majority of Tribal Council and Board votes shall decide the matter, provided that votes are cast by a quorum of Tribal Council and the Board.
- (c) Make final decisions regarding the hiring, promotion, termination and salary adjustments of all departmental directors for the Tribe's Gaming Facilities.
- (d) Authorize the execution of contracts for budgeted capital purchases for goods for the Tribe's Gaming Facilities that are in excess of $25,000.00 per annum, but less than $300,000.00 per annum, and which do not include a waiver of sovereign immunity or arbitration provisions. Transactions shall not be segregated to avoid authorization requirement.
- (e) Authorize the execution of contracts for services provided to the Tribe's Gaming Facilities that are in excess of $25,000.00 per annum, but less than $300,000.00 per annum and which do not include a waiver of sovereign immunity or arbitration provisions. Transactions shall not be segregated to avoid authorization requirements.

- (f) Provide financial information to the Tribal Governmental Chief Financial Officer upon Request.
- (g) Provide a monthly written report to the Tribal Council which shall include the following: (1) financial statements for the prior month; (2) all purchases in excess of $5,000 for the prior month; (3) updated player's data and associated metrics, and; (4) such other information as the Tribal Council may request.

7-8-8 Appointment of Chairperson and Duties

The Board shall elect a Chairperson annually who shall

- (a) Issue notice of meetings;
- (b) In consultation with the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, prepare proposed agendas for all meetings;
- (c) Preside at all meetings;
- (d) Ensure that minutes of all meeting are kept; and
- (e) Make quarterly reports to the Tribal Council.

7-8-9 Meetings

The Board shall meet no less frequently than once per month and may establish a more frequent meeting schedule as required by business needs.

- (a) All regular meetings require three (3) days' written notice. Notice shall be delivered to each Board member by mail, facsimile or e-mail as established by the Board. Notice shall include the date, time, place and an agenda for the meeting.
- (b) Meetings shall generally be closed, except to members of the Tribal Council, however, the Board may invite guests to attend meetings as necessary to conduct business, and may also invite members of the General Council to attend meetings or portions of meetings that are intended to provide information about the Tribe's Gaming Business to the General Council.
- (c) The Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer for the Gaming Facilities shall attend meetings and will provide documentation to review as necessary, which shall be provided to the Board no less than five days prior to meetings.
- (d) The Director of the CTCLUSI Gaming Commission or designee shall be required to attend meetings and will advise the Board regarding regulatory matters and the regulatory impacts of matters before the Board as necessary.

- (e) Special meetings may be called by any member of the Board when business must be done prior to the next regular meeting. No special meeting shall be held without twenty-four (24) hours' notice to each Board member unless waived in writing.
- (f) The Board may recess at its discretion to discuss any matter in closed or executive session: Provided, that the general subject matter to be discussed in such closed or executive session is expressed in the motion calling for such session. All personnel matters and all matters relating to the internal activities of Board members shall be discussed or decided only in closed session. A report of any decisions made related to such matters shall be included in the minutes.

7-8-10 Confidentiality

Board Members must agree to sign a confidentiality agreement that states that they understand and agree that as a Board member they must hold as confidential all information learned in the course of their board member status concerning the confidential business of the Tribes. Further, as a Board member, they understand that by signing the confidentiality agreement, they will not violate the confidentiality of any person(s) or provide confidential information or documents to anyone not authorized by the Tribes. If it has been determined that a Board member has violated this confidentiality agreement, that Board member will be removed as more fully stated below.

7-8-11 Removal of Board Members

- (a) By majority vote, the Tribal Council may remove any Board member for the following reasons:
 - (1) Acting, or attempting to act, beyond the scope of their authority;
 - (2) Creating a disruptive atmosphere;
 - (3) Violation of their confidentiality agreement;
 - (4) Violating Tribal law;
 - (5) Lack of confidence, or;
 - (6) For convenience
- (b) A Board member shall automatically be removed if, during their term, they are found guilty of or enter a plea of no contest or guilty to any felony or misdemeanor offense under federal, state or Tribal law.

- (c) A Board member shall automatically be removed if, during their term, they fail to maintain suitability for a high security gaming license.

7-8-12 Quorum

A majority of the Board members must be present, either in person or by telephonic or video participation, to constitute a quorum. Board action is valid only by majority vote with a quorum present.

7-8-13 Personal Conflicts of Interest

No Board member may vote on any action directly involving a member of his or her immediate family. A Board member may take part in discussion and count toward a quorum regarding action involving a member of his or her immediate family. Immediate family members include father, mother, adoptive mother, adoptive father, daughter, son, spouse, person in a spousal relationship, brother, sister, stepbrother and stepsister.

7-8-14 Compensation

- (a) Board members may be compensated for their services on the Board in an amount to be determined by Tribal Council at the time of appointment.
- (b) Board members who are employees of the Tribes shall not be compensated in excess of their salary.
- (c) Authorized travel shall be paid subject to the travel requirements specified by Tribal Policy.

7-8-15 Rules; Records

The Board may adopt rules for the transaction of its business, subject to Tribal laws, and shall keep a record of its agendas, transactions and findings, which shall be a public record unless otherwise deemed confidential and not subject to public disclosure under applicable law.

7-8-16 Severability

If a court of competent jurisdiction finds any provision of this Code to be invalid or illegal under applicable federal or Tribal law, such provision shall be severed from this Code and the remainder of this Code shall remain in full force and effect.
