Pursuant to policies and procedures adopted by the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians, Political Mailings may be submitted to authorized Tribal recipients, consistent with the discretionary approval of the Tribes, and the schedule and available resources of the Tribes and its personnel. No right exists to demand a Political Mailing be distributed, that a particular message or word in a Political Mailing be distributed or that a particular deadline for processing or mailing a Political Mailing must be met. No appeal may be made, to Tribal Court or otherwise, to a final decision of the Tribes to deny a particular Political Mailing. Nothing contained in CLUSITC 7-3 shall be interpreted as granting or permitting a right to the identity of a mailing address for a particular Tribal Member.

Upon approval of a Political Mailing Submission, the Political Mailing Author shall be responsible for submitting to the Tribes the proper number of envelopes for all authorized Political Mailing recipients, the proper postage for each Political Mailing envelope, and the proper number of copies of the Political Mailing. No Political Mailing will be processed until all proper envelopes, postage and content copies have first been submitted to the Tribes.

Political Mailings will only be mailed to current Tribal Members, meeting age and all other requirements for Tribal voting rights and that have not submitted to the Tribes a current request to "opt out" of receiving Tribal Mailings. The Tribes shall affix to the envelope of each Political Mailing, a stamp or statement communicating that the contents of the Political Mailing are a Tribal Political Mailing, that the Mailing is the sole opinion of the Political Mailing Author and that the Tribes takes no responsibility nor opinion on the statements within the Political Mailing, including the accuracy of its content. The Tribes shall make reasonable efforts to transcribe the proper mailing address for each Tribal Mailing recipient but will not be responsible for the accuracy or validity of any mailing address affixed to a Political Mailing.
